

(provided that the Secretary shall not have, upon such terms as may be provided in the Obligations or related agreements, prior to that demand, assumed the Obligor's rights and duties under the Obligation and agreements and shall have made any payments in default), make payment to the Obligees, Indenture Trustee or any other agent of the unpaid principal amount of Obligations and unpaid interest accrued and accruing thereon up to, but not including, the date of payment.

§ 298.41 Remedies after default.

(a) In general. Provisions governing remedies after a default, which relate to rights and duties of the Obligor, the Secretary and other Persons (where appropriate), shall be included in the Security Agreement or in other parts of the Documentation.

(b) Action by Secretary. After a default has occurred and is continuing and before making payment required under the Guarantees, the Secretary may take the Vessel or Advanced or Modern Shipbuilding Technology and hold, lease, charter, operate or use the Vessel or Advanced or Modern Shipbuilding Technology, accounting only for the net profits to the Obligor. After making payment required under the Guarantees, the Secretary may initiate or otherwise participate in legal proceedings of every type, or take any other action considered appropriate, to protect rights and interests granted to the Secretary by sections 1105(c), 1105(e) and 1108(b) of the Act, the Security Agreement or other applicable provisions of law and of the Documentation.

(c) Security proceeds to Secretary. The Secretary's interest in proceeds realized from the disposition of or collection with respect to security granted to the Secretary in consideration for the Guarantees (except all proceeds from the sale, requisition, charter or other disposition of property purchased by the Secretary at a foreclosure or other public sale, which proceeds shall belong to and vest exclusively in the Secretary), shall be an amount equal to, but not in excess of, the sum of (in order of priority of application of the proceeds):

(1) Guarantee Fees, if any, due the Secretary under the Security Agreements;

(2) All moneys due and unpaid and secured by the Mortgage or Security Agreement;

(3) All advances, including interest thereon, by the Secretary, pursuant to the Security Agreement and all reasonable charges and expenses of the Secretary;

(4) The accrued and unpaid interest on the Secretary's Note;

(5) The accrued and unpaid balance of the principal of the Secretary's Note; and

(6) To the extent of any collateralization by the Obligor of other debt due to the Secretary from the Obligor under other Title XI financings, such other Title XI debt.

(d) Security proceeds to Obligor. The Obligor shall be entitled to the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of security, described in paragraph (c) of this section, if and to the extent that the proceeds realized are in excess of the amounts described in paragraphs (c) (1) through (6) of this section.

§ 298.42 Reporting requirements—financial statements.

The financial statements of the Company shall be audited at least annually, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, by independent certified public accountants licensed to practice by the regulatory authority of a State or other political subdivision of the United States or, licensed public accountants licensed to practice by the regulatory authority or other political subdivision of the United States on or before December 31, 1970. In the case of Eligible Export Vessels, the accounts of the Company shall be audited at least annually, and the Secretary may require that the financial statements be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, by accountants as described in the first sentence of this section or by independent public accountants licensed to practice by the regulatory authority or other political subdivision of a foreign country, provided such accountants are satisfactory to the Secretary. The accountants performing such audits may be the regular auditors of the Company.
